ASTROLOGY & PERSONALITIES—page 10

attractive Balinese, Birman and Himalayan should also be destined to please.

SCORPIO—October 23 to November 21

Many of you Scorpio readers may have come up against that old, oft times repeated belief that Scorpio is the worst sign of the zodiac. If so, feel free to dismiss that idea immediately. It's pure nonsense. While it is true that a number of you should resolve to lighten up a bit this coming year—you're definitely much more intense about life than the majority of others! It is people like you who get things done in this world.

Motivated and resourceful, ardent and loyal: when you espouse a cause, the recipient of your attention has reason to hope. Interested in seeing a spay/neuter clinic in your area? You're just the person to investigate the possibilities, then hang tight until the project is through.

Neither you nor the Scorpio cat are likely to allow your feelings free reign. Yet both you and that self-same pet possess a charisma so vital that those allowed around you can sense the passion bubbling just below the surface.

Since the sign of Scorpio has dominion over Halloween, you might discover a real fondness for the traditional black cat; particularly for one with riveting orange eyes. Scorpions are noted for the intensity of their gaze and the Black, Tortoiseshell, and Smoke Persians, as well as certain Maine Coon cats, come with orbs of this striking hue.

SAGITTARIUS—November 22 to December 20

Two of Sagittarius's least enviable traits could also work out to be two of the cat world's best allies. Those qualities? An ingrained independence and a shoot-from-the-hip directness. Unfortunately, there are a lot of people in this world who stand by and watch man's inhumanity to animals in silent distress. Sagittarius, however, with its articulate intolerance of inequality; its affinity for justice, is unlikely to bypass a favorite cause without stirring up one heck of a fuss!

The Sagittarius cat, naturally enough, is a bit of a rabble-rouser himself. Let another feline amble past the window in which he's perched and watch the adrenaline flow! The symbol for Sagittarius is the centaur (half-man, half-horse), and with the ruckus he'll raise, you'll suspect that he's reverted to type.

New Year's resolution for Sag? Yours is a changeable sign, prone to procrastination. Determine to carry through with the strength of your convictions. In them there is much to admire.

Sagittarians are known to be alert, athletic, fun-loving, and enthusiastic people. So what better cat than the rare, similarly personable Chartreux to accompany you through time?
